Death's Retrothal.

A few years ago a New York newspaper conducted an open discussion upon the topic: "Is Marriage a Failure?" The answer is easy and upon the surface. Where there is mutual love and respect, if there is also health, marriage is a success. When health is left out, even the most ardent love does not count, and marriage is invariably a failure.

Modern science has cried the warning so often that all should realize the dangers of wedlock to people in ill-health. In a case of this kind death lurks on every side—in the kiss of betrothal and in the honeymoon. The man who is suffering from ill-health is a physical bankrupt, and has no right to condemn a woman to be his nurse for life and the mother of babes that inherit his physical weakness. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts directly on the digestive organism. It makes it strong and its action perfect. When a man's digestion is all right his blood will be pure; when his blood is pure his nervous system will be strong and his health vigorous.

A woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the delicate organism of her sex is certain to suffer from general ill-health, and to be an unhappy, helpless invalid and a disappointment as a wife. Her children will be weak, puny and peevish. A happy home is an impossibility for her until her health is restored. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all troubles of the distinctly feminine organism. It cures them speedily, completely and permanently. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Both medicines are sold by all good dealers.

RECIPE FOR RAINMAKING.

Subsulphuric Acid, Water and Zinc Create Artificial Storms.

Some years ago Kansas was overrun with so called "rainmakers" who did a thriving business in vicinities afflicted with drought. The Rock Island railroad had a rainmaker who traveled about the country in a special car and made rain from Texas to Iowa. At the time the process employed was guarded as a secret, and no doubt the mystery surrounding the operation had much to do with the interest aroused among the people. But now comes George Matthews in the Wichita Eagle with a full exposition of the means employed by the Rock Island wizard and others, and the following is the recipe given by him:

"Ten fluid ounces of subsulphuric acid.

"Fifty fluid ounces of water.

"Five ounces of zinc.

"Renew every hour and stir every 30 minutes—day and night until rain comes. The moment rain begins to fall remove jar or crock. In territory west of Kansas use one-third less; at sea level use double the quantity. In Kansas work only on southerly winds, which are the moisture bearing winds, which are the moisture bearing winds. Begin an experiment only in a clear sky. One station of the experiment, if successful, will produce a rain 30 to 50 miles in diameter. A better and more certain result can be secured by having three or more stations 40 or 50 miles apart."

According to Mr. Matthews, this mixture left in an open mouthed jar generates hydrogen gas, which rapidly ascends. The theory is that this gas ascending creates a shaft through the hot air down which the color rushes, creating a storm center and gathering moisture for precipitation. Matthews claims that of the 200 experiments made by him at least 180 were successful.—Kansas City Journal.

Take the Tombstone Along.
The cemetery superintendents say that there is one peculiarity about the funerals of Chinamen which is never noticed at any other funerals. The tombstone always comes along with the funeral. Most of the tombstones are simple slabs of marble, with the inscription in Chinese characters, which are arranged up and down instead of across the stone. In two or three instances the funerals of Chinamen have been known to be delayed because the friends of the man who was to be buried were waiting for the tombstone to be finished. The stone is always taken to the cemetery in the undertaker's wagon.—Baltimore Sun.

Contrary.
"I think my Uncle Jerry," said Aunt Mehtabel, "was the contrariest man I ever see. I remember of his pickin' up a hot p'tater once when we was eatin' dinner, an' there wasn't no company at the house, nuther. An' what do you s'pose he done with it?"
"Threw it at somebody?" conjectured one of the listeners.
"No; he held it in his hand till it blistered him."
"What did he do that for?"
"Cause anybody else would 'a' dropped it!"—Youth's Companion.

An Easy One.
He entered the cheap restaurant and took a seat at one of the tables.
"Will you have a 15 cent dinner or a 25 cent one?" inquired a waiter.
"Is there any real difference?"
"Certainly."
"What is it?"
"Ten cents."—Ohio State Journal.

The western part of Persia is inhabited by a species of camel which is the progeny of its kind. They are snow white and are on that account almost worshiped by the people.

In Henry VIII's time a lamp was found in a monastic tomb that had been burning for 1,200 years.

When a man is missing, every one's first impulse is to count the women left in town to see if one is short.—Aitch in Globe.

Walking Up Stairs.

A physician who declared that few people knew how to walk up stairs properly was asked to describe how it should be done. He said: "Usually a person will tread on the ball of the foot in taking each step. This is very tiresome and wearing on the muscles, as it throws the entire suspended weight of the body on the muscles of the legs and feet. You should in walking or climbing stairs seek for the most equal distribution of the body's weight possible."

"In walking up stairs your feet should be placed squarely down on the step, heel and all, and then the work should be performed slowly and deliberately. In this way there is no strain upon any particular muscle, but each one is doing its duty in a natural manner. The woman who goes up stairs with a spring is no philosopher, or at least she is not making a proper use of her reasoning faculties."

"The habit, too, of bending over half double when ascending a flight of stairs is exceedingly reprehensible. In any exertion of this kind, when the heart is naturally excited to a more rapid action, it is desirable that the lungs should have full play. The crouching position interferes with their action, the blood is imperfectly aerated, and there is trouble at once. Give the lungs a chance to do their work everywhere and at all times."—New York Sun.

Why There Was No Room.

When he was a young man, Senator Hale of Maine, like many young men who have later on in life made their mark in the world, was not without that egotism which is said to be an element of success.

On one occasion Mr. Hale was riding in an old fashioned stage coach with Senator and Mrs. Frye. The only other passenger was an Irish woman past middle life, rather comely of face, who wore enormous hoops, fashionable at that period. To amuse his fellow passengers Mr. Hale pretended to be much enamored of Biddy and would slide up close to her as if he were about to put his arms about her, look unutterable things at her and entertained himself and his companions at the good natured creature's expense. Finally at one of the stations a man put his head in the door and asked if there was any room to be had inside the coach.

"No," said Mr. Hale. "All the seats are taken." Then turning to the Irish woman and looking into her eyes with great tenderness he said:

"There isn't any room in here, is there? We don't want any one else in here, do we?"

"No," said Biddy, with a delightful brogue. "My hoops are pretty large, and I see you feel pretty large, and there is no room here."—Detroit Free Press.

Note the Change.

In March, 1815, the Paris Monitor announced the expected return of Emperor Napoleon from Elba. The first announcement of the Monitor was far from polite, but as the little Corsican approached Paris a gradual change took place in its tone:

"The cannibal has left his den."

"The Corsican wolf has landed in the bay of San Juan."

"The tiger has arrived at Gay."

"The wretch spent the night at Grenoble."

"The tyrant has arrived at Lyons."

"The usurper has been seen within 50 miles of Paris."

"Bonaparte is advancing with great rapidity, but he will not put his foot inside the walls of Paris."

"Tomorrow Napoleon will be at our gates."

"The emperor has arrived at Fontainebleau."

"His imperial majesty Napoleon entered Paris yesterday surrounded by his loyal subjects."

The Opportunity.

"Bilkins got married rather suddenly, didn't he?"

"Yes. Somebody gave him a railroad pass to New York good for two, and he didn't want to waste it."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE PIANO DETECTIVE.

Work That Keeps a Sleuth Busy Most of the Time.

"Did you ever hear of a piano detective?"

The city hall detective scratched his head reflectively and then was compelled to admit that he had never heard of such an individual.

"Well, there are a dozen or more of them in Philadelphia, and they make good money too."

"Their work is simple. You see, a great many piano firms sell instruments on the installment plan. That is, the purchaser pays, say, $50 down on a $500 or $600 instrument and agrees to make good the remainder at so much a month. By far the greater number of such purchasers are as honest as the day is long, but once in a while a man comes along whose little scheme is to move out the piano a day or two after it is delivered and sell it for a couple of hundred."

"It is the business of the piano detective to circumvent this sort of thing. As a rule, some suspicious movement on the part of the would be defrauder of the piano dealer causes him to be placed under suspicion. The dealer can't step in and take his instrument away under the contract, and the only thing he can do is to watch it. Here is where the piano detective comes in. He hovers around the house in which the suspected purchaser lives, night and day, watching any attempt to make way with the piano. Usually three or four weeks are long enough to settle the question one way or another. If the piano buyer is crooked, he is practically certain to make some sort of a move before the expiration of that time. If he doesn't, it is pretty safe presumption that the suspicious is groundless and the piano detective is called off by his employer, with no one but himself and two or three others the wiser. But the precaution is a necessary one."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

It Carries the Current.

"If I were you, I wouldn't lean against that post. You might get hurt."

The speaker was a policeman, and the person to whom his words were addressed was a young fellow who stood under an iron awning with one hand resting on an iron post which helped to support the awning. The young man jerked his hand away quickly.

"What's the matter with the post?" he asked. "It looks all right."

"Yes, it does," responded the policeman, "and it may be all right. But it's hot, and its surface is wet from the rain that is falling. There are a whole lot of telephone and telegraph wires in the vicinity. One of them may be mixed up with an electric light wire somewhere and may also be rubbing up against some part of this awning. Under such conditions, if it should be the case, the awning would be one that, with the water that is running down the post as a conductor, would be apt to put you out of existence. I've seen one man killed in just that way, and I really don't want to see another. That's all. Goodby."

Then the policeman walked off down the street, leaving the young fellow staring first at the post and then at the wires overhead. But as long as the saunterer remained under the awning he kept his hands away from the wet iron.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Edible Birds' Nests.

The nests of the little swift (a kind of swallow), gathered along the rocky cliffs with so much difficulty and yet in such quantities on account of the Chinese demand, are formed of a salivary secretion which soon becomes firm on exposure to the air. It is a glutinous white substance with little red dots. They are clean, the nests being taken as soon as completed. The little swift, being repeatedly robbed, is at last compelled to eke out its scanty supply of secretion with little sticks and grass and is thus enabled to lay its eggs and hatch its young, as only nests free from foreign material are merchantable.—A Sketch of the Philippines, in Self Culture.

ANOTHER PACKAGE MARKED PROGRESS.

Another package marked progress has just been landed in the United States from England. It has an extraordinary indorsement over other progress packages, received by the administration from the government of England. The package is endorsed by no less a personage than the German Emperor. The sound of the term Emperor will have in it to the ears of the money power and its supporters the harmony of the voice of a siren, who, in ancient story, it is said, beguiled the mariner with the sweetness of its song till he became deaf to the voice of patriotism and lost to love of country.

The harmony to the money power there is in the term emperor will be to Americans and American institutions, like the sweet voice of the siren to the sailor, oppression and death, and will in all probability be the means of sending the editor of the Gazette to his knees in thanksgiving and prayer.

It appears that the commercial world, which are terms that cover, like the term liberty, a multitude of crimes against the people, is all agog on both sides of the Atlantic about something that is called a commercial treaty between England and the United States, to which commercial arrangement and treaty Germany has been admitted. The admission of Germany to the giant scheme is arrived at from a very diplomatic statement made by a German representative who is attached to the suit of the German Emperor now in England, and the additional fact that the German Emperor has visited, in connection with the Prince of Wales, the Duchess from America, Marlborough, who was a Vanderbilt.

There is no question that the visit to the Duchess of Marlborough was intended as a compliment to the United States, whose good offices at this time are required to further the interests of these European land thieves in China.

There is some talk about Russia being at a disadvantage in the commercial business arranged as claimed between the three great powers, which is without any tangible foundation. The Czar of all the Russias has for his wife a grand-daughter of the good old lady, the Queen, and for that reason, Russian interests will be protected in China for the present.

The late visit by the Czar to the Emperor of Germany has its meaning in matters commercial at the Orient and it is most likely that during the imperial visit at London the hobnobbing between Minister Choat, Marlboroughs, Prince of Wales and the German Emperor has a meaning that will not favor republican institutions.

It is concluded in well informed circles that McKinley favors the arrangement, commercial so called, between Germany, England and the United States, and that the arrangement has in it a plan of the money power in Europe and America to largely revolutionize the world, which conclusion is correct.

When we take into the account, when arriving at a judgment upon the matter, the motive force of the money power, which is avarice called progress or commercial, as is best suited to the work, we learn that its avarice equals the size of the earth, that truth having been ascertained it is known that the money power has neither conscience nor decency in its avarice and whenever there is anything that it specially covets it directs the attention of the governments to the coveted prize and killing men to acquire the desired thing becomes its business, directed by the governing power.

There are examples upon the earth at this time of its unconscionable work carried forward under the names of liberty, progress and commerce, and when it has the combined power of the greatest nations where will its work end is a question that should engage the humane and thinking people of the earth till it is solved.

It will not end when China is partitioned under the term commerce, nor will it end when the weaker people of the earth are subdued under the term, progress, but it will end when the effort is made directly to enslave mankind in the name of liberty and its supporters will close business at the same time.

It is claimed that representatives of the States in the Senate will not agree to an alliance under the term commerce. It is becoming a question what there is that the Senate will not do when the money power demands an agreement. Depew is not a

Senator from New York for anything that is not in the interest of the money power and it is very noticeable that the Vanderbilts are largely in the business through the visits of Wales of England and William of Germany. The game is developing slowly but surely, and if William Jennings Bryan is elected President his election will be secured over millions of money expended to defeat him which truth may cause the editor of the Gazette to say "Let us pray and give thanks."

Rumors of a strike in the U. C. & V. were prevalent on the streets of Virginia Friday. ## Married With a Bump.

The marriage customs of the Negules are peculiar. The young man who seeks a bride first obtains the favor of her parents and then pursues her, catching her in his arms. She breaks loose and runs and does not yield until he has caught her several times. Finally he leads her in triumph to her home. Here her father drags the youth up a ladder to her floor of their hut. The mother drags up the maiden. They are then made to kneel, and the father pours over them a coconut shellful of water. He then bumps their heads together, and the ceremony is completed. They spend their honeymoon in the depths of the mountains and for five days and nights are lost to sight, after which they come back to everyday life.

There is another marriage custom which is worth describing. Instead of the youth and maiden being dragged up the hut ladder they are made to climb two saplings that grow near each other. Then an elder of the group grasps the saplings and draws them together until the heads of the young couple touch, with a kiss or a bump, according to the force used. This makes them man and wife.—Forum.

Taking Umbrage.

A few idlers (no very unusual thing) were lounging in front of the shop of the battle of the burgh, among whom the laird espied the village Aesculapius, who was his political oracle, and thus addressed him:

"How's a' wi' ye the day, doctor? Ony political news?"

"Nothing very particular," replied the doctor; "only it is said that the Dutch have taken umbrage at"—Here the doctor got a touch on his shoulder from his shop boy, who acquainted him that a valuable patient was waiting for him, and he broke off abruptly from his political laird.

"Ta'en Umbrage!" exclaimed the laird. "Mercy upon us! Hae they ta'en Umbrage? Baulie, ken ye if it's a wa'd town or no?"

"A wa'd town!" said the baulie; "nae sic thing. It's a sugar island and ane o' the sweetest o' them. The article's up already, but ye shall hae a stane weight hame wi' ye at the auld price."—Cornhill.

An Expensive Knife.

An old man went into a cigar store where pocketknives are on sale. He had a fancy for one of the knives, but thought the price, 75 cents, too high. After a parley with the proprietor he concluded to wager 75 cents against the knife and play a game of poker. He lost the money and then that much again. He continued to lose until he lost $121, all the money he had, but the proprietor made him a present of the knife.

In the afternoon he returned, saying he was dissatisfied with the knife. He had paid $121 for it, but would willingly exchange it for a $1 article. The dealer kindly made the exchange, and the man went his way rejoicing. He had no money to trouble him, but he had a knife, and, after all, a knife is a good thing to have.—Arizona Republican.

Not His Style.

"A musician out of work, are you?" said the housekeeper. "Well, you'll find a few cords in the woodshed. Suppose you favor me with an obligato." "Pardon the pronunciation, madam," replied Peripatetic Padrosky, "but Chopin is not popular with me."—Catholic Standard and Times.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo. lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. CARSON CITY, November 27.—To JOURNAL, Reno:

A VISIT TO THE OILINGHOUSE MINES
The Laws of Nature are Apparently Set at Naught by the Formation.

A JOURNAL reporter has made a flying visit to Oilinghouse, and while there devoted all his time to an examination of the district and its developments made by those owning mining claims. The examination confirmed previous opinions entertained respecting the value of the ores in the district, but led to more confusion upon the ore development made in Oilinghouse. Quartz increased in fine porphyry that shows no fissure or defect is a condition before unknown to the writer, and he knows of no theory that will explain the cause.
He knows of no theory that would aid to explain gold bearing iron and quartz increased in solid porphyry. Were it not that the deposits of iron and quartz are orderly the theory of a conglomerate might lead to the truth, but there is nothing in the appearance of the rock deposits that tends to lead to any view other than a regular deposit in the natural order of world construction.
Narrow seams of quartz and porphyry contain values in gold that astonish the observer, because there is not anything in the appearance of the ore that gives any indications of value, except it may be free gold that is seen in much of the rock.
There should be no doubt about the wealth of Oilinghouse, which is the best side of the question for the miner, as he can always conduct his mining operations successfully on the theory that gold is where you find it.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

VISIT TO THE TRUCKEE MEADOWS
Several Little Items Picked up at Huffaker's Cross Roads.

Yesterday was as rare as a day in June; it was so perfect that the JOURNAL localizer forgot his rheumatism and gout and mounted a wheel whereon he toured the southern half of the Truckee meadows.
The roads are in a superb condition. The recent rains washed out the ruts and the sunshine removed the trace of the rain.
Fall plowing is in progress. Five brothers are tearing up a big acreage of mellow soil.
Dan Huffaker is beginning a lot more improvements to his model country home. He is doing something the county evidently thought not worth while—namely, graveling the highway along the frontage of his farm. The next step will be a broad sidewalk and stone hitching posts.
E. F. Quasta, proprietor of the People's saloon, has begun selling dry as well as wet goods. When Huffaker's crossing becomes a city Mr. Quasta will doubtless be running the leading emporium.
George W. Mapes is improving the Marysville ranch by building a new barn. The ground dimensions are 36 by 40 feet.
John Johnson will have another infant to baptize at the next Danish christening. Last Thursday there was born a ten pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Announcement.
I have just received a complete line of working and dress shirts of the latest patterns and styles, which I will sell at bedrock prices. I wish to call particular attention to a working shirt I am handling. It is undoubtedly the best working shirt that was ever sold on the Coast for the money. Call and examine the same.
I have all the latest patterns in golf and negligee shirts, in silks and madras cloths.
I am pleased to announce that I have secured the agency of the Wheeler overall, famous on this Coast as being the best fitting and most durable overall on the market. It is rivited, triple-sewed and made of the heaviest and best denim. Try a pair and be convinced.
Free employment office in connection with the store.
ALFRED NELSON.

Squared Itself.
The Carson Appeal has retracted its charge, or, rather, insinuation, that the Nevada Commissioners had entered into a deal to have Nevada products classed with California's exhibit at the Paris world's fair. It was a case of pure moonshine. The charge was not only untenable but ridiculous.
The only possible source for such a silly allegation was the fact that one of the Commissioners in a personal capacity was securing exhibits from Mono and Inyo counties for the railroad exhibit.

Basket Ball.
The Stanford basket ball team will challenge University of Nevada within the next few days. As the challenged team has the right to select the place where the game will be played, it is more than probable that the fair co-eds of Palo Alto will be asked to come to Reno for the contest.
The only barrier in the way is the Stanford faculty which may object to the young ladies of that institution going so far from home.

A Card of Thanks.
I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligations for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always given the most perfect satisfaction, we feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. DORV, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by W. Pinniger.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve.
Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at Hodgkinson's drug store.

State Central Committee.
There will be a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee at the office of William Webster in Reno on Tuesday, December 5, 1899, at 12:30 o'clock p. m. A large attendance is requested as matters of importance will be considered by the Committee.

Sayings and Doings of the Nevada and Northern California Stock Men.

The following sheep and cattle men are registered at the Palace:
E. Ferris, Long Valley, cattleman.
J. Colton, San Francisco, sheepboy.
W. H. Roche, San Francisco, cattleman.
D. P. Browne, Ft. Bidwell, cattleman.
Harvey Douglas, a Reno boy, representative of Kansas City commission house which handles sheep.
Roy Mead, San Francisco buyer.
W. T. Betell, San Francisco buyer.
J. H. Holchiss is down from Lake View, Oregon, arranging to have cattle fed.
D. P. Browne, Superintendent of the Warner Valley Stock Company, Lake county, Oregon, has sold and delivered 250 head of steers to Poly, Heilbron & Co. The cattle arrived over the narrow gauge Sunday evening. They will be put on hay for a time. A. C. Willey purchased them for the San Francisco firm.
Mr. Browne says: "The beef cattle have all been sent out of eastern Oregon. There are a few bunches of mutton sheep left. The stock men are keeping up their droves of stock cattle. Ranges are in good shape, there having been more storm there than here. The wet weather, however, has made it a mean job driving out cattle. The outlook for next year is good. There will be plenty of cattle and sheep to turn off. The winter promises to be stormy, which will insure plenty of water and feed next year."

Wedding Bells.
Last evening at 7:30 Rev. G. H. Jones spoke the words which made James D. Andrews of this city and Mrs. Ida L. Lewis of Susanville man and wife.
The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. A. Forkner, on Center street. Only a few guests were present. The time honored custom of giving away the bride was performed by her father, W. M. McLeod.
The newly wedded couple left on the evening train for Wadsworth.
